IHCL announces the opening of its first Ginger Hotel in Chandigarh at Zirakpur.

Chhatwal, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, IHCL, stated, “IHCL remains committed to the immense commercial potential of Chandigarh. This opening is in line with our strategy of being present in all key cities across India. The hotel marks the debut of Ginger brand in Zirakpur, a fast-growing satellite town neighbouring the Chandigarh Capital Region. We are delighted to open our second hotel in the city.”

Strategically located at a short drive from Chandigarh International Airport, Ginger Chandigarh, Zirakpur provides quick access to Chandigarh, Mohali and Panchkula as well as major corporate hubs in these cities. The hotel is a part of Dhillon Plaza, a mixed-use development complex with high foot falls. Featuring 102 rooms, Qmin an all-day diner offering a mix of global and local cuisines, a state-of-the-art meeting area, a banquet hall and a fitness centre, the hotel is the perfect destination for both business and leisure travellers.

The hotel is developed in partnership with the Dhillon Group, an industrial house in Northern India with its presence across multiple sectors including Retail, Real Estate, Entertainment, IT and Chemicals, among others.
